

Dorzagliatin showed improvements in marker that measures β -cell function.

Data demonstrates that there was significant β -cell function improvement (as measured by HOMA2- β^1) in the treatment group, with an increase of 2.56% in β

